

Men's Ballet Apparel

A typical dress code might be a white shirt, black tights, white socks, and white ballet slippers.

TIGHTS

Men's tights are thicker.
The default color of tights is black.

DANCE BELT

A dance belt is a sturdy thong worn beneath your tights. The dance belt provides a lot of support for your "manhood", and that becomes extremely valuable in ballet. The other purpose it serves, is to keep everything from being too visible.

BALLET SLIPPERS

Ballet slippers are light shoes made of either canvas or leather and have thin leather soles. They are often referred to as ballet flats, as opposed to pointe shoes.

LEOTARDS, SHIRTS, AND TOPS

Leotards are like shirts that join together under your crotch. Kind of like a woman's one-piece bathing suit. I prefer to wear a t-shirt or tank top, and I pretty much always do. A T-shirt can be tucked in without having to wear a leotard.
